

ITEM 1: S2 History and Political Education

Topic: Pre-Colonial Trade & Heritage Preservation

Scenario

In Busoga, a private investor wants to bulldoze an 18th-century trade settlement site to build a shopping mall. Youth support the mall for jobs, while elders argue destroying the ruins destroys their heritage and tourism potential. The town council is deciding whether to approve the demolition.

Task

- Part (a): Write an essay explaining how pre-colonial trade shaped local societies, trade routes, and culture in East Africa.
- Part (b): Write a proposal to the council explaining why heritage sites must be preserved and how the town can balance development with historical preservation.

ITEM 2

Topic: Colonial Administrative Policies & Resistance Movements

Scenario

A sub-county in Northern Uganda introduced new taxes through local chiefs without consulting residents. Angry youth have turned to violent protests, citing historical uprisings like the Lamogi Rebellion to justify their actions, while elders urge peaceful dialogue.

Task

- Part (a): Write an essay analyzing how colonial administrative policies like Indirect Rule triggered local resistance and affected Ugandan unity.
- Part (b): Write a civic response advising the youth on why non-violent, constitutional methods are more effective for resolving conflicts than violent rebellion, drawing lessons from history.
